Asbury Heights Marks Older Americans Month with Asbury Week Celebration

April 13, 2011, Mt. Lebanon, Pa.—In celebration of National Older Americans Month, Asbury Heights, a retirement community in Mt. Lebanon, Pa., will host “The Time of Your Life” from May 23 – 27. Daily events held on Asbury’s main campus located at 700 Bower Hill Road will highlight past decades and celebrate the residents and staff who help to make Asbury Heights an ideal place to call home. The schedule of events is as follows:

Monday, May 23: 1920s

Asbury’s speakeasy-themed event complete with table games, jazz music and dancing.

Tuesday, May 24: 1930s

Spectators are welcome to enjoy Asbury’s annual parade at 1:30 p.m. featuring numerous community organizations and floats made by staff members.

Wednesday, May 25: 1940s

A “USO talent show” featuring a variety of talented performances from residents and staff.

Thursday, May 25: 1950s

Staff will don 1950s-style clothing for an outdoor, employee picnic. All are welcome to enjoy a classic car show from 11 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

Friday, May 27: 1960s

Residents can relive sixties music, politics and more while playing various games.

For more information on “The Time of Your Life” or any of the listed events, please call 412-571-5030.
